DON'T WANT THE PLACES

The Difficulty of Putting Eligible Men in the Cabinet.

The Holiday Adjournment of Congress—The Question of Secret Executive Sessions—The Nicaragua Treaty—Proceedings
in the House.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Calvert making one of the important exceptions just now, and it is somewhat remarkable that those who are most eligible for the positions are those who are least seeking them. Such are Bayard and Bell, and Cockrell and Jones of Florida, and G. W. and George Barnes and Venetia Smith, public school teachers, none of them be willing to exchange his place in the Senate for a Cabinet position.

Talking with one of these gentlemen last evening, he said: "I would like to be a member of the Cabinet, but I have no right to 'steal' away from Congress." The reporter suggested that one with long experience in the Senate, such as the Senator addressed had, was much better fitted for a Cabinet place than any other man in the Senate. "I have had no desire to be a member of the Senate but I am willing to bury myself there." One could be absolutely sure of having his way entirely in the management of a department, might make a reputation by his skill, and could be a great service to the country. "It would be a great task, and one that few men would undertake, to take up so much time as hold the responsible position of a senator in the Senate." And this is only a repetition of the same idea of the other members. I have done my duty in the Senate, and now I don't want," he said, "to let my hands and seal my lips just at this critical time in the history of our party, when it needs careful guidance." I proposed to him to go to the general meeting among men now in public life, and it was because of this that "the catamounts are being opened and the old pieces there pulled down and scattered," as the Philadelphia Press put it, in order to get a good seat.

ADJOURNMENT.

Several resolutions have been introduced fixing the date of adjournment for the last days at the 200th inst. There seems to be a desire to call the Senate to order, and go quietly home. At least it is a fact that most of the members of the Senate mean to leave in the beginning of a session of Congress. The lobbies have the appearance of a picture in February. Occasionally you see an ugly grizzled fellow who has been here for ages, brooking around and giving orders, and you see a young man who is a good deal stirred up over the prospective Spanish reciprocity treaty, have then a good seat to attend the New Orleans Exposition during the holiday season.

It is probably because of the certainty of a pretty long holiday recess that there are so few people here. At least it is a fact that most of the members of the Senate
mean to leave in the beginning of a session of Congress. The lobbies have the appearance of a picture in February. Occasionally you see an ugly grizzled fellow who has been here for ages, brooking around and
giving orders, and you see a young man who is a good deal stirred up over the
prospective Spanish reciprocity treaty, have
then a good seat to attend the New Orleans Exposition during the holiday season.

QUESTION OF SECRET SESSIONS.

Considerable pressure is being brought to bear upon Senators with a view to having them abstain from the rule which requires a two-thirds vote to open secret sessions.

The rule is to be justified. The practice of shutting out the public, however, when the revenue trustee, under a law which is too capable made it too large for individual members to be able to manage, is a whole scandal.

There is no objection to the South's right to open its sessions in the same places in which the South is particularly interested.

One is the Department of Justice, which needs reforming, and the other is the Postoffice Department, which has never dealt very liberally with the South and regard to mail service.

WHAT THE SOUTH WANTS.

A Letter from Henry Watterson on the Subject.

New York, Dec. 13.—In response to a request made by the World the following letter has been received:

"LOUISVILLE, Dec. 6.
"To the Editor of the World:
"The South sets up no sectional claim whatever, and wants only an honest adjustment of the revenue trustee, and nothing more.
The South is quiet, and it is probable it may fail of ratification. A Republican Senate from the West, in talking with a representative of the press to-day, expressed doubts as to its ratification. Many other moderate views. It is held that Mr. Blaine will use his influence against it.

THE NICARAGUAN TREATY.

The Foreign Relations Committee, it is thought, at the next session will consider a resolution of disapprobation of several memoranda of agreement from the Nicaraguan government.

The resolution will be introduced by the collector of customs for non-payment of duty, therefore he could not deliver up the papers.

The party were accordingly acquitted. They appeared with the Chief of Police, and the collector of Customs, and the collector of Customs, highly complimented the court, including the Chief of Police. It is understood they will not take up a residence here.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.
SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 13, 1884.

CHAUNCY M. DEPEW has written a letter declining to be a candidate for Senator in New York.

HENRY BEACH of Vincennes, on trial at Washington C. H., Ohio, for horse-stealing has been acquitted.

The opposition to the Spanish treaty is very intense, and there is a strong probability that it will not be ratified by the Senate.

CORNUIS' Cincinnati band of fifty pieces will furnish the New Orleans exposition with music during the entire season, and will receive for the services rendered $52,400.

The national bureau of agriculture has issued a report on the prices of farm products, showing a general tendency downward. Corn has been lower but once in years and wheat and oats have never been reported as low by the bureau.

BLAINE'S famous libel suit against the Indiana Sentinel is reported to be practically ended by a sort of technicality. It seems that when the Sentinel filed its second set of interrogatories to Blaine in the case, it asked that upon refusal to answer he be enjoined from further prosecuting the suit. He never answered, and it is said that the Judge's action upon the interrogatories amounts to granting the injunction.

SATURN BAYARD was the subject of much curiosity by other Democratic Senators upon his return to Washington from Albany, his visit to the latter city being regarded in connection with a Cabinet appointment, which was understood by some to be opposed by Tilden upon the ground that Bayard and Thurman favored the election of comonwealth, while others think that Tilden is without influence because it was mainly his friends that cut the successful ticket in New York.

A RUORAL mountain vendetta is known to grow out of the lynching of John Martin at Farmers City, Rowan County, by a mob a few days ago. The order by which he was taken from the jail at Winchester is pronounced a forgery and it is alleged that he was shot by the men who proceeded to be guard him. There is great excitement over the affair and as Martin's friends have sworn vengeance further shedding of blood is looked for. The latest intelligence is that seventy-five negroes under arms on each side, camped out and ready to fight.

Professional Artists' Models.
[Cleveland, Ohio.]

Mr. Dolley, a New York artist, said, "We have all the models. The charge from $2 to $5 a day, the hours being from 9 o'clock in the morning to 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The rates about the same in Paris, with the difference of a man and a woman, about half as much and even black the artist's boots before the hour of going to work. Many models are well posted as to pictures and costumes and when an artist desires a certain model the artist knows where to get it. We have all the names for a picture an artist will have to pay $2.50 a week for them. I own the costumes that I use, and have about $7,000 invested in them. The costumes of the characters in the picture of drinking scenes were purchased by me in Paris. They represent the dress of time of Louis XIII. That leather coat cost me $50 and those boots with wide tops were $25."

"MUSICAL is the paradise of models. Models have no time for social or other absorptions. The pay is poor, and the spectacle of a richly dressed model is seldom seen," said an artist lately returned from Musical. "There are so many models that an artist will frequently be compelled to turn to the next door neighbor for a model. The man who was assassinated in Mexico, it is believed that his assassination was inspired from that direction. He was a man of the world, and when he was found dead, he was buried in a box with some faint inscriptions. He was anonymous when found, and at a late hour the physicians declared that he would never reveal the secret of his assassination.

Prison Convocation Adjourned.
CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The National Convocation of officers of Penitentiaries and Reformatory Institutions adjourned sine die after midnight last night. The last session of the cause was the pardoning power, the speakers generally holding that the power should only be exercised by the Executive, to correct the manifest errors of a man. A committee of the officers of the State Prison, the Allegheny (Pa.) Workhouse, as chairman, was appointed to prepare a system of uniform prison reports.

Cannibal Murderer Captured.
HANNAH, Mo., Dec. 13.—John Blue arrested here Wednesday night for burglary, has been identified as the notorious Wm. Calahan, who, while imprisoned for burglary at San Quentin, was condemned to death in 1864, Governor of the jail on March 1, 1864, and made his escape. He refused to be turned back to Canada, but a telegram from Uncle Murray, of Sandwich, says he has already taken steps to secure the necessary extradition papers.

Some of the well known artists are fast among models as exacting men, who require much trifling. Some is one of those. A model will soon learn an artist's peculiarities, and if he is easy-going the model will "soldier" and sag back from the proper pose in order to give a severe task to pose in ordinary houses have had, and it is no wonder that they shrink.

Animals and especially horse painters are put to great expense for models. It will cost the artist $100 a day to have a stall in order to get the effect of light and shade, and then watch the animal as it gallops up and down the street in order to get the position of each part. Its forelegs serve as the fulcrum by which it is held in position, and its hind legs serve as propellers. The faster it goes the straighter it projects its head in order to give the air free access to its lungs, and the wider it distends its nostrils, for a horse never breathes through its mouth in running.

Kaiser Wilhelm went the other day to call on a Russian lady eighty-five years old. On taking her he said: "At least you are a hundred years old." "Yes, I am two years older than you are," said the old woman. "But I have a great many severe fatigues," said the emperor. "They hardly count," replied the old lady. "Where can you be?" If had borne eight children, as I have?" The emperor went away laughing.

JEROME BLANTON, a farmer near New Haven, was ordered by two armed tramps to give up his life and his money. He would give them what he had if they would spare his life, and pulling a revolver, shot one of them dead. The other shot him in the shoulder and then fled.

THE BOHEMIAN LAND Mortgage Company, of New York, has suspended. The failure came on the Bourse, and the shares of the Land Mortgage Society, which were selling readily at seventy, fell to thirty florins in the afternoon. The suspension has embarrassed many.

S. B. MASON, of Richmond, Virginia, drew a prize in a lottery, and the letter and ticket which was mailed to the company, to collect his money, was captured by the Postoffice Department, and Mason was indicted by a grand jury.
